

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

Data Collection During COVID

Jennifer Coffey, PhD
August 6, 2020

Office of Special Education Programs

U.S. Department of Education

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

Today's Topics

- Leslie Fox, PhD: Data considerations
- Teri Marx, PhD & Tessie Rose Bailey, PhD: Virtual data collection

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

The SPDG FY20 Competition

- An informational webinar is now available:
<https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/search-grants.html?keywords=84.323A>
- If you are receiving new (continuation) SPDG money in FY 2020 you cannot apply for a grant.
 - Grantees in a no-cost extension may apply.
- We do expect to have a competition in FY 2021 and FY 2022 (but cannot guarantee it)

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

Other Sources of Assistance

- The National Association of State Directors of Special Education, in partnership with OSEP, recorded a series of webinars that provide guidance to potential applicants for the SPDG program:

<https://www.livebinders.com/b/2530809>

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/osers/osep

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

SPDG National Meeting

- Virtual - Zoom
- October 14th and 15th from 11:00-4:00 ET
- Theme: Inclusive Leadership
- We will have breakouts organized around the theme and subtopics.
- State time
- Networking?

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

Today's Presentations

- Continuing the conversation about how best to support MTSS currently.
- Virtual data collection
- Types of data you may want to collect
 - Evaluation plan may need to be reconsidered
 - Considerations for the SSIP

OSEP

Office of Special Education Programs

THANK YOU!

Jennifer.Coffey@ed.gov

202-245-6673