

SPDG Virtual National Meeting

Currently, it can be incredibly hard to get the attention of practitioners, families, and leaders. Once you have their attention, is your training and coaching maximized; is it having the desired impact? Are you improving fidelity and outcomes?

The conference will help you push boundaries, break barriers, and improve results for children with disabilities by giving you “A New Perspective”.

MEETING OBJECTIVES

Participants will learn how to:

- Make strong connections and build relationships to support success for children with disabilities.
- Tell your project’s story in a way that assists with recruitment, uptake, and spread.
- Provide professional learning that is effective and makes a lasting impression.

Pre-Meeting
